HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, The Honorable Byron Tunnell, Member of the Railroad Commission of Texas and former Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, has wide knowledge of state government and is highly respected by members of both the House of Representatives and the Senate of the 59th Legislature of the State of Texas; and

WHEREAS, His experience and highly competent performance as a member of the House and as Speaker of that body during the 58th Legislature, which was one of the most efficient and productive sessions in history for the Texas Legislature, have provided him with first-hand knowledge of, and much insight into, the problems of state government, particularly as they relate to the role of the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, His wisdom and counsel could be of inestimable value to members of the 59th Legislature as they seek to deal constructively with the difficult issues before them; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, by the House of Representatives of the State of Texas, the Senate concurring, That the Honorable Byron Tunnell, Railroad Commissioner of Texas, be invited to address a joint session of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the 59th Legislature on Wednesday, March 24, at 11 a. m.; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the House be authorized to forward an official copy of this Resolution of invitation to Railroad Commissioner Byron Tunnell.

FORM A

(For favorable and unfavorable reports on bills and resolutions, where no committee amendments are recommended.)

COMMITTEE REPORT

Date Mar. 18, 1965

HON. BEN BARNES

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir:

We, your Committee on Rules, to whom was referred H.C.R. No. 63, have had the same under consideration and beg to report back with recommendation that it ^{do}~~do not~~ pass, and be not printed

Ben Barnes
Chairman.

(When this form is used for a favorable report on a general bill the words "do not" are marked out. If the bill is a local bill the word "not" should be inserted before the word "printed." When used for an unfavorable report the word "do" is marked out, the comma after "pass" is changed to a period, and the remaining words also marked out.

When this form is used for a simple or concurrent resolution the comma after "pass" should be a changed to a period and the remaining words stricken out because resolutions are printed in the Journal when first introduced.)
